Scholarship Recipients

Marcus Jennings

University of Tennessee College of Medicine Memphis, Tenn.
$10,000 scholarship recipient. When Marcus Jennings was growing up in a single-parent household in inner-city Memphis, he watched his mother work three jobs and decided that he wanted to be physician and give back to his community.

“What the AMA Foundation is doing with this award is so awesome. It’s heartwarming to know that so many people are so willing to lend a hand.” - Marcus Jennings

Healthy Communities/Healthy America Recipient
Partners for Healing, Tullahoma, Tenn.

$25,000 free clinic grant

Founded in 2001, Partners for Healing provides health care to the working uninsured of Coffee and Moore Counties in Tennessee. The AMA Foundation awarded Partners for Healing a $25,000 grant to expand their clinic hours. Current wait time for a patient who schedules an appointment is about two weeks. By expanding clinic hours, many of these patients who cannot or should not wait two weeks to be seen will no longer have to experience such delays.

2011 Excellence in Medicine Award
Recipient

Robert Bowers, MD, FACS

Volunteers in Medicine Clinic, Chattanooga, Inc.

Nita Shumaker, MD and Phyllis Miller, MD, leaders of the Chattanooga-Hamilton Medical Society and the Medical Foundation of Chattanooga, wrote of Dr. Bowers, “He is an extraordinary human being, and as a result, he is an extraordinary physician. His practice of otolaryngology has always been of the highest quality. He has been sought after to lead in every setting in which he devotes his time.”
